He also wished to thank the following people for their donation of time, equipment, food and drink; Bill Lewis, Pat Wervy, Jim Spice, Ed Dodich, Jack Bernard, Keith Bradley, and Keith Storrs. First Flights of the Year were done by Steve Yeaton (Airplane) and Jim Spice (Helicopter) despite some brutal 30-40 mph wind conditions...

New Business:

As reported last month, Bill Rago will be taking over the duties of the club newsletter; the Club thanked Steve Yeaton for all his years of service getting that publication out to us.

Dick opened a discussion on our upcoming event days and particular events by name (IE Cub Day, Giant Scale Day, etc.) After some talk and a hand vote it was decided to keep things the way they have been.

Bill Rago requested a Club board meeting be scheduled to discuss the upcoming year events. That will be determined at a future date.

Dick asked that any Club members that have ideas for the "Good of the Club" contact any officer.

Gary Allen donated a "SkySport" transmitter for use in our training program. He also made provisions (Booked) to keep our meeting room at the Zion Public Library for the remainder of 2011.

After a motion by Pat Wervy (2nd Russ Scott), a voice vote approved a $100 donation to the Zion Library.
